
Executive Director Report Items, March 20, 2019 Board Meeting

- Ongoing Discussions of DEQ/UNRBA Memorandum of Agreement—Reviewed with Modeling and Regulatory Support Workgroup (MRSW) on March 11, 2019—Input needed from the MRSW on technical issues addressed in the MOA/MOU
- Legal Support Activities—Draft of Strategy ideas from contractor provided to the Legal Workgroup
- Met with NCSU Center for Applied Aquatic Ecology on February 20, 2019, resolved data access issues
- NC Water Quality Association Meeting on February 28, 2019
- Monitoring the Nutrient Criteria Development Plan Process—covered the Scientific Advisory Committee meeting on February 26, 2019, Criteria Implementation Committee (CIC) scheduled to meet March 25, 2019, Doug Durbin serves on the CIC
- Upcoming Collaboratory Jordan Lake Meeting April 3, 2019, January 22, 2019:

Jordan Lake Nutrient Management Study Research Symposium

Wednesday, April 3, 2019 10:00 am to 3:00 pm

North Carolina Botanical Garden

100 Old Mason Farm Rd

Chapel Hill, NC

The symposium is free, but registration is required. Register by clicking here.

- Presentation at Upcoming WRRRI Annual Conference, this Thursday, March 21, 2019, McKimmon Center
- Communications Project will hold a broad stakeholder session latter this year—notice will be provided well before it is scheduled
- Met with Representative Larry Yarborough on February 21, 2019 to discuss UNRBA progress toward the Strategy Reexamination
- Available to meet with jurisdictions to review the work of the UNRBA
- Nutrient Scientific Advisory Board (NSAB) Meeting, April 5, 2019
- Follow-up discussions with DEQ/DWR on 303(d) decisions affecting Falls Lake
- Continued dialog with DEQ and other stakeholders on implementation of Stage I Existing Development Implementation
- Path Forward Meeting dates revised